

Listen to the audio track and fill in the gaps:

Once upon a time, there was a little boy named Timmy who had a pet dog named Max. Max was the most _____ dog in the whole neighborhood. He could do tricks like sit and roll over.

Timmy loved Max very much and always tried to _____ him the best food he could find. Timmy knew that good food was important for Max to stay healthy and strong. He also gave Max plenty of _____ to drink.

One day, Timmy's mom told him that they had to buy a new collar for Max. Timmy went to the pet store with his mom and found many different collars to choose from. Some were _____, but others were _____. Timmy decided to buy the _____ expensive collar because he wanted to save money.

After buying the new collar, Timmy went back home and put it on Max. Max wagged his tail happily and Timmy couldn't help but think how lucky he was to have such a _____ and loving dog. And even though the collar was _____, Timmy knew that what mattered most was the love and care he gave to Max.
