In each of the sentences below, four parts are underlined and lettered A, B, C and D. One of these parts contains an error. Decide whether it is A, B, C or D.

1. Road rage has caused (A) many drivers to taking (B) actions that have led to another's (C) injury or even (D) death.

2. We should encourage our own people to (A) provide the labour force required (B) in order to reduce the outflow (C) of revenues (D).

3. If we are serious (A) about the conservation of wildlife, we could (B) certainly help curb (C) indiscriminate (D) exploitation.

4. Many fishermen returning from the sea on that fated (A) day were saved as the mangroves served (B) as a buffer (C) when the giant waves struck (D).

5. According (A) to a survey, many kindergarten pupils believed (B) their parents are paid (C) their salaries by (D) ATMs.

6. It will be a big challenge (A) to change the attitude of road users but (B) we will strive (C) to do them (D) through enforcement and education.

7. I was told by a bank clerk that (A) red packets would only be given if (B) I carry (C) out transactions on (D) that day.

8. With the great amount of harmful pollutants (A) been (B) discharged to the environment, the balance (C) in nature has (D) been affected.

9. The effect (A) of a change in climate is that economic (B) activities, human settlements and human health will experience (C) opposite (D) changes.

10. Anyone over (A) the age of (B) 40 who plans to take on (C) exercise should first check his general health by (D) consulting his doctor.

LIVEWORKSHEETS