

In each of the sentences below, four parts are underlined and lettered A, B, C and D. One of these parts contains an error. Decide whether it is A, B, C or D.

1. Road rage has caused many drivers to taking actions that have led to another's injury or even death.
A B C D
2. We should encourage our own people to provide the labour force required in order to reduce the outflow of revenues.
A B C D
3. If we are serious about the conservation of wildlife, we could certainly help curb indiscriminate exploitation.
A B C D
4. Many fishermen returning from the sea on that fated day were saved as the mangroves served as a buffer when the giant waves struck.
A B C D
5. According to a survey, many kindergarten pupils believed their parents are paid their salaries by ATMs.
A B C D
6. It will be a big challenge to change the attitude of road users but we will strive to do them through enforcement and education.
A B C D
7. I was told by a bank clerk that red packets would only be given if I carry out transactions on that day.
A B C D
8. With the great amount of harmful pollutants been discharged to the environment, the balance in nature has been affected.
A B C D
9. The effect of a change in climate is that economic activities, human settlements and human health will experience opposite changes.
A B C D
10. Anyone over the age of 40 who plans to take on exercise should first check his general health by consulting his doctor.
A B C D