

Non-Defining Relative Clauses

Read carefully and put the comma(s) in the right place(s).

1. The teacher who loves to drink coffee reads the newspaper every day.
2. The organs which are in our body play important roles to keep us alive.
3. We visited him at the hospital where we ate the delicious noodles.
4. Neptune which is an ice giant is the farthest planet from the sun.
5. The brain belongs to the nervous system which helps us feel and move.
6. She visited us at the school last Monday when everyone was on holiday.

Read carefully and join the two sentences together using only 1 (one) comma.

1. She went out with her grandfather. Her grandfather is 100 years old.

---

2. The chef works in this restaurant. My mother loves to eat in this restaurant.

---

3. The food goes into the stomach. The food is digested in the stomach.

---

Read carefully and join the two sentences together using only 2 (two) commas.

1. The student loves learning English. The student sits next to me in class.

---

2. The blood vessels are small tubes. The blood vessels carry blood throughout the body.

---

Practice Six: Read carefully and fill in the blanks with the correct relative word.

Hyde Park, _____ is close to Buckingham Palace, is closed today.

They were very excited to see John Lennon, _____ has won many awards.

It's amazing that we get to see the comets, _____ are objects made of rock and ice.

12. Andy can't recognize the stranger, _____ helped him at the hospital yesterday.