

Use the correct form of the words given in brackets to complete the passage given below.

The Delhi Government (plan) to send help to the (plan) to send help to the tsunami victims in Chennai in two phases. Immediate help (send) as part of a relief package. A long-term assistance package (also work) out. A team (go) to visit the affected areas to look into reconstruction work.

Answer:

The Delhi Government is planning to send help to the tsunami victims in Chennai in two phases. Immediate help will be sent as part of a relief package. A long – term assistance package will also be worked out. A team will go to visit the affected areas to look into reconstruction work.

Complete the passage using the correct form of the verb. (Use only the Past Tense or Past Perfect Tense.)

I (think) my train (leave) at 11.30. But I (be) very disappointed when I (arrive) at the station and (learn) that it (already leave). I (find) out later that the timetable I (have) (be) an old one.

Answer:

I thought my train would leave at 11:30. But I was very disappointed when I arrived at the station and learnt that it had already left. I found out later that the timetable I had was an old one.

Complete the following sentences using the correct form of the verbs given in brackets.

- (a) Poor fellow! I (consider) him to be extremely unlucky.
- (b) Research (show) that cycling is a good exercise.
- (c) My sister is a linguist. She (speak) six languages fluently.
- (d) Why you (not wear) your new dress?
- (e) We (always want) a house in the hills but we are unable to decide the exact place.
- (f) It (rain) quite heavily. You can't go out just yet.
- (g) I..... (know) him for most of my life.
- (h) the guests..... (arrive)?
- (i) The sales figures..... (increase) for some time, but this fortnight there has been an all-time high.

(j) She..... (drive) since the age of eighteen.

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in brackets.

The phenomenon of female infanticide is as old as many cultures, and (a) (account) for millions of gender-selective deaths throughout history. It (b) (remain) a critical concern in a number of developing countries today, notably in the two most populous countries on earth, China and India. In all cases, specifically female infanticide (c) (reflect) the low status accorded to women in most parts of the world. It is arguably the most brutal and destructive manifestation of the anti-female bias that (d) (pervade) patriarchal societies. It is closely linked to the phenomena of sex-selective abortion, which (e) (target) the female foetus almost exclusively, and leads to the neglect of the girl child.

Correct the tense form in the following sentences where necessary.

(a) Water is boiling at 100° Celsius at sea level.

(b) My friend dances gracefully.

(c) It rains, we can't go out.

(d) The planets are going round the sun.

(e) These students are going for the Sports Meet.

(f) What does this pen costing?

(g) This book is about a man who is deserting his family and going to live on a Pacific Island.

(h) I am having a flat in Janakpuri.

(i) "What are you waiting for?" "I am waiting for the shop to open."

(j) Do you recognized that man?