

- At one time, he (had been / was) a successful businessman living a life of great luxury. Then he (had / had been) a paragliding accident and lost the use of his arms and legs. Life in a wheelchair (was/had been) lonely and boring.
- One afternoon, Philippe (was feeling / felt) particularly depressed, he and his family (were interviewing / interviewed) people for the job of nurse, but nobody seemed to be the right candidate. All of a sudden, someone was (knocking / knocked) on the door...

II. Past perfect, past continuous, past simple

- At one time, he had been a successful businessman living a life of great luxury. Then he had a paragliding accident and lost the use of his arms and legs.
- One afternoon, Philippe was feeling particularly depressed, he and his family were interviewing people for the job of nurse, but nobody seemed to be the right candidate. All of a sudden, someone knocked on the door...

1. Was Philippe a successful businessman, before or after the paragliding accident?
before/after
2. He felt depressed for a long time yes / no
3. They were interviewing people when someone interrupted and knocked on the door true / false

III. Past perfect and past simple

- At one time, he had been a successful businessman living a life of great luxury. Then he had a paragliding accident and lost the use of his arms and legs.
 - He and his family were interviewing people for the job of nurse, but nobody seemed to be the right candidate. All of a sudden, someone knocked on the door...
1. What tense do we use to talk about a specific point in the past? past simple / past perfect
 2. What tense do we use to talk about something that happened before this specific point in the past? past perfect / past simple
 3. What tense do we use to talk about something that was in progress at the moment of speaking? past simple / past continuous

IV. Past perfect and past simple

- At one time, he had been a successful businessman living a life of great luxury. Then he had a paragliding accident and lost the use of his arms and legs.
 - He and his family were interviewing people for the job of nurse, but nobody seemed to be the right candidate. All of a sudden, someone knocked on the door...
1. We form the past perfect with: Subject + have / had + past / past participle
 2. We form the past continuous with: Subject + was and were / only was + verb ing
 3. We form the past simple with: Subject + regular verb + ed or irregular verb in past / only verb + ed