

According to the audio.

1. Are these sentences True or false?

Chris is not superstitious when playing sports.

The author participates in ice hockey.

The author's shirt has never been washed.

Chris confirms his superstitious nature.

Todd is not interested in Chris's lucky shirt.

Chris confirms his superstitious nature.

2. Choose the best answer

What can be inferred about Chris's attitude towards superstition in sports based on the conversation?

- a He only believes in superstition for specific sports like hockey.
- b He is not superstitious at all and thinks it's silly.
- c He is superstitious and has specific rituals he follows.
- d He only believes in superstition on Friday the 13th.

What does the conversation reveal about Chris's lucky shirt?

- a It is a new shirt that he recently bought.
- b It is a shirt he has had for a long time but is falling apart.
- c It is a shirt that he wears only for good luck, not for comfort.
- d It is a shirt that he has multiple versions of to rotate.

What can be inferred about Chris's laundry routine for his lucky shirt?

- a He washes it after every game, win or lose.
- b He only washes it when he has a bad game.
- c He never washes it, believing the "badness" will be washed out.
- d He has a specific schedule for washing it, like once a month.

What reason does Chris give for not playing ice hockey more often in Japan?

- a The cost and inconvenience of transporting his equipment.
- b A lack of available ice rinks in the area he lives.
- c The quality of the ice rinks in Japan is not up to his standards.
- d He prefers to only play hockey in his home country.

Based on the conversation, what can be inferred about Chris's identity as a hockey player?

- a He is a casual player who only participates occasionally.
- b He is a serious player who is passionate about the sport.
- c He is a professional hockey player who plays at a high level.
- d He is a youth player who is still developing his skills.

What is the purpose of mentioning Friday the 13th at the beginning of the conversation?

- a To establish Chris's superstitious beliefs.
- b To discuss a specific hockey game scheduled on that date.
- c To introduce the topic of luck and superstition in sports.
- d To gauge Chris's reaction to a potentially unlucky day.

Which statement best summarizes Chris's overall approach to his lucky shirt?

- a He is willing to wear it regardless of its condition.
- b He is overly attached to the shirt and refuses to replace it.
- c He has a strict routine for maintaining the shirt's "luck."
- d He sees the shirt as a necessary part of his hockey gear.