

Ex 1:

1. "After winning the lottery, all the excitement went straight to his head."

- a) He stayed calm and rational.
- b) He became very arrogant.
- c) He became very generous.
- d) He lost his money quickly.

2. "During the emergency, she kept her wits about her and called for help."

- a) She panicked.
- b) She remained alert and composed.
- c) She fell asleep.
- d) She ran away.

3. "He is completely in the dark about the company's plans for the merger."

- a) He knows everything about the plans.
- b) He has some information about the plans.
- c) He knows nothing about the plans.
- d) He is organizing the plans.

4. "As the manager, she knows what's what in the office."

- a) She is confused about everything.
- b) She understands how things work.
- c) She is learning the ropes.
- d) She dislikes her job.

5. "Without any evidence, he didn't have a leg to stand on in the argument."

- a) He had strong support for his argument.
- b) He was neutral in the argument.
- c) He had no support for his argument.
- d) He was able to convince everyone.

6. "She can't see the wood for the trees and misses the main point of the discussion."

- a) She understands the main point clearly.

- b) She gets distracted by details.
- c) She dislikes discussions.
- d) She avoids all meetings.

7. "When I saw the clues, I put two and two together and solved the mystery."

- a) I got more confused.
- b) I ignored the clues.
- c) I figured out what happened.
- d) I asked for help.

8. "He's very quick on the uptake, so he understood the instructions immediately."

- a) He took a long time to understand.
- b) He understood right away.
- c) He didn't understand at all.
- d) He ignored the instructions.

9. "Does the name John Doe ring a bell?"

- a) You dislike that name.
- b) The name is familiar to you.
- c) You have never heard that name.
- d) You think that name is strange.

10. "All this noise is driving me round the bend."

- a) It is making me happy.
- b) It is making me confused.
- c) It is making me angry.
- d) It is making me disappointed.

11. "Let's not split hairs and argue over minor details."

- a) Let's focus on minor details.
- b) Let's ignore the details.
- c) Let's not argue at all.
- d) Let's not quibble over trivial matters.

12. "After the hectic month, she took stock of her achievements."

- a) She bought new stocks.
- b) She ignored her achievements.
- c) She evaluated her progress.
- d) She gave up on her goals.

13. "His performance was disappointing, to say the least."

- a) His performance was excellent.
- b) His performance was average.
- c) His performance was very bad.
- d) His performance was promising.

Ex 2:

1. Sarah was _____ by the unexpected turn of events.

- A) convinced
- B) defined
- C) confused
- D) believed

2. The new _____ was greeted with applause.

- A) confusion
- B) invention
- C) decision
- D) doubt

3. It seemed _____ that they could finish the project ahead of schedule.

- A) believable
- B) defined
- C) inconceivable
- D) convinced

4. The teacher _____ the complex mathematical problem to the students.

- A) defined
- B) convinced
- C) explained
- D) conceptualized

5. Mark's _____ demeanor made it hard to read his true feelings.

- A) convinced
- B) confusing
- C) convincing
- D) conceive

6. Emily's _____ attitude helped her succeed in convincing the team.

- A) indecisive
- B) decisive
- C) disbelief
- D) convincingly

7. The detective's _____ led to the discovery of the hidden treasure.

- A) confusion
- B) brilliance
- C) belief
- D) concept

8. The witness was _____ about what he saw that night.

- A) doubted
- B) explained
- C) convincing
- D) uncertain

9. The ancient ruins remained _____ despite years of archaeological study.

- A) defined
- B) unexplained
- C) convinced
- D) conceptualized

10. Despite initial _____, Sarah eventually agreed to join the adventure.

- A) belief
- B) confusion
- C) convince
- D) disbelief