English for children

Write next to each sentence whether the word in red is a personal pronoun (PP), a possessive pronoun (PPs) or a possessive adjective (AP).

She (PP) gave me (PP) her (AP) phone number.

This is my (AP) book, not yours (PPs).

His (AP) car is faster than mine (PPs).

They (PP) are going to visit their (AP) grandparents.

Is this pen yours (PPs) or hers (PPs)?

I (PP) like to play with my (AP) dog.

He (PP) found his (AP) keys under the couch.

Our (AP) friends are coming to the party.

Their (AP) house is bigger than ours (PPs).

She (PP) is talking to her (PP) friend.

The decision is theirs (PPs).

You (PP) should finish your (AP) homework.

The responsibility is yours (PPs).

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS

English for children

Look at the sentences and write them correctly.

- We/I are planning our/ours vacation.
- They/their gave us a tour of their/theirs school.
- I need to find my/mine glasses.
- He/he's is proud of his/he's achievements.
- It/its is raining outside.
- My/mine sister and her/hers friend are here.
- Its/it color is beautiful.
- She/her handed mea note.
- Your/you advice was very helpful.
- The cat licked its/it's paw.

Find us on Facebook

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS

English for children

Fill in the blancks.

YOU CAN DO IT	SUBJECT PRONOUN	POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES	POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS
1st person
2nd person
3rd person (male)
3rd person (female)
3rd thing
1st person (plural)
2nd person (plural)
3rd person and thing (plural)

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS

English for children

Look at the following questions and change them into affirmative sentences.

- Is this dress hers, not mine?
- _____
- Are those shoes mine, and are these ones yours?
- _____
- Is that jacket his, but is this coat hers?
- _____
- Are these pants ours, and are those skirts theirs?
- _____
- Is my scarf blue, but is your hat red?
- _____
- Are these jeans yours, not mine?
- _____
- Are our gloves in the drawer, and are their socks in the basket?
- _____
- Is this belt mine, but are those belts over there his?
- _____
- Is his coat warmer than her jacket?
- _____
- Are these shorts yours, and are those leggings hers?
- _____

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS

English for children

Listen to the audio and write down the word you heard.

Lore Fonseca

LIVEWORKSHEETS