

SHOULD AND SHOULDN'T

Organize the words to make the correct structures of the modal verb Should (affirmative, negative, questions).

- Affirmative: verb base form + should + subject + complement.
- Negative: verb base form + complement + subject + should not.
- Questions: subject + should/should not + verb base form + complement.
- Wh-questions: should/should not + wh-question word+ complement. + subject + verb base form

Choose the correct option.

You _____ sleep 7 hours, it is necessary.

_____ I go to the gym?

You _____ eat chocolate because it is bad for your health.

He _____ eat more vegetables.

Who _____ call the client?

You _____ try the new Vietnamese restaurant!

Where _____ we go after the meeting?

I _____ have bought this expensive jacket! I don't have any more money.

I can't decide so _____ I buy the red dress or the green one?

I _____ get up early to get to the exam tomorrow.

Modal Should

Match the problem with the pieces of advice.

I'm hungry

I'm sleepy

I'm thirsty

I'm cold

you should put on your jacket.

you should drink some juice.

you should go to bed.

you should eat some food.

