1.Match the words with their definitions.

Reliable	Literature created from the imagination, rather than based on fact
Prejudice	often implies an unfair preference or dislike that is not based on objective reasoning. It can affect judgments and decisions, leading to favoritism
Fiction	Free from errors; precise and correct in details
Fantasist	information or data that is used to support a claim or prove the truth of a statement
Fabrication	trustworthy and reliable
Evidence	overstatement
exaggeration	Uncertain, questionable, or lacking in credibility
doubtful	Fake, fraudulent, or not genuine; something that is meant to deceive or mislead
Credible	A person who creates or indulges in fantastical or unrealistic stories, often to the point of being delusional
Bogus	Dependable and consistently good in quality or performance; able to be trusted.
Bias	Preconceived opinion or bias against a person or group that is not based on reason or actual experience
accurate	The act of inventing or concocting something false, often with the intent to deceive

2. Fill in the gaps with a suitable phrase.

1. Accurate
2. Bias news outlets
3. Bogus
4. Credible news source
5. Doubtful
6. Evidence
7. Exaggeration
8. Fabrication
9. Fantasist
10. Fiction
11. Prejudice
12. Reliable

1. The detective presented compelling.....that linked the suspect to the crime scene.
2. The novel was an intriguing piece of....., filled with imaginative worlds and unforgettable characters.
3. ..... news outlets often present stories in a way that aligns with their particular political viewpoints.
4. The report was a complete ....., with no basis in reality.
5. The claim about the miraculous cure was quickly debunked as .....by medical experts.
6. The scientist's measurements were highly....., ensuring the validity of the experiment.
7. The witness's testimony seemed ....., as it contradicted several established facts.
8. Known as a ....., he often told grandiose stories that were far from the truth.
9. The BBC is considered a .....news source due to its commitment to factual reporting.
10. Her story about the incident was full of ....., making it hard to believe.
11. His .....against certain groups affected his ability to report news impartially.
12. The weather forecast from this service is usually.....and helps people plan their day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A	B	C
Adjectives
1 real	unreal	fake
2 truthful	un-	dishonest
3 credible	-in	unbelievable
4 plausible	-im	rediculous
5 probable	-im	unlikely
6 legal	il-	illicit
7 responsible	ir-	thoughtless
8 normal	ab-	bizarre
9 professional	un-	amateur
10 important	un-	trivial
Nouns
11 honesty	dis-	deceit
12 reality	un-	unreality
13 belief	dis-	incredulity
Verbs
14 appear	dis-	vanish
15 understand	mis-	confuse
16 trust	dis-	suspect
17 cover	un-	reveal

3. Complete the sentences with words from column B in the correct form.

1.I don't care what you think! Your opinion is completely .....

2. Grace's teacher was very ..... when he told all the children to shut up!

3. The police have .....a plot to hack into the government computer system.

4. It's not entirely..... that there's a planet indentical to ours.

5. I know I have many fauolts but .....isn't one of them.

4.Complete the sentences with words from column C in the correct form.

1. I..... Marilena wasn't telling the truth. She always smiles when shes lying.

2. Johann is so upset. He paid $4000 for a Cartier watch, then found out it was a .....

3. I..... always .....Robert with george – they look alike.

4. Running 5 kilometres may seem..... to you, but it's a big deal for me!

5. Ursula lives in a .....world if she thinks she's going to find the perfect man.

LIVEWORKSHEETS