

Types of clauses:

Exercise 1:

Complete the following mindmap

Exercise 2:

Classify the clauses in bold in the sentences below:

1. If you called, we would never have figured it out.
2. I wonder if you called.
3. When Stephen felt the storm coming, he closed the windows and brought the clothes rack inside.
4. What I don't know won't hurt me.
5. It is a sin to kill a mockingbird.
6. Jem wanted to kill a mockingbird.
7. To kill a mockingbird, you need to have steady hands.

8. We managed to escape to tell our friends the truth.
9. To tell his husband the truth, John would need to go to therapy.
10. Whoever did it will be pardoned.
11. My friend Joan, who did the unthinkable, managed to write a book about her journey.
12. Emigrating to another country is not a thing to take lightly.
13. The idea that she should run for president was what propelled our party forward.
14. Big Brother will be watching every step that you take.