

WOF/ The Dragonet Prophecy: Chapter 18-23

Chapter 18

1-8 9-15

1. What is the primary focus of this passage?
 - a. Clay's internal struggle during a battle
 - b. The history of the IceWing and MudWing conflict
 - c. Queen Scarlet's rule over the dragons
 - d. The prophecy of the dragonets
 - e. The SkyWing announcer's commentary

2. Who is the main character in this passage?
 - a. Queen Scarlet
 - b. Fjord
 - c. Blizzard
 - d. Clay
 - e. Kestrel

3. What event is taking place in this passage?
 - a. A dragon council meeting
 - b. A battle in an arena
 - c. A training session for young dragons
 - d. A diplomatic negotiation
 - e. A rescue mission

4. Why is Clay unsure about his ability to fight Fjord?
 - a. He has never fought another dragon before
 - b. He is afraid of Queen Scarlet
 - c. He lacks knowledge about IceWings
 - d. He is not feeling well
 - e. He doesn't want to kill anyone

5. What does Fjord do when Clay tries to talk to him?
 - a. He laughs at Clay
 - b. He agrees to stop fighting
 - c. He tells Clay to shut up and let him kill him
 - d. He runs away
 - e. He gets distracted by the crowd

6. What can be inferred about Clay's feelings towards fighting Fjord?
 - a. He is eager to prove his strength
 - b. He is conflicted and does not want to kill
 - c. He feels confident and prepared
 - d. He despises Fjord and wants revenge
 - e. He is indifferent to the outcome

7. Why does Clay apologize to Fjord during their fight?
 - a. He accidentally insulted him
 - b. He wants to negotiate peace
 - c. He feels bad for injuring him
 - d. He is trying to distract him
 - e. He is scared of losing

8. What is the significance of the MudWing in the balcony?
 - a. He is secretly Clay's ally
 - b. He is a spy for Queen Scarlet
 - c. He represents the MudWing tribe's indifference
 - d. He is a rival of Clay
 - e. He is cheering for Fjord

9. What does the word "talons" refer to in this context?
 - a. Wings
 - b. Scales
 - c. Claws
 - d. Teeth
 - e. Eyes

10. What does "frostbreath" mean in the passage?
 - a. An IceWing's friendly greeting
 - b. A cold stream of air used as a weapon
 - c. A type of dragon fire

- d. A spell used to freeze enemies
- e. A defensive maneuver

11. What is the primary conflict in this passage?
 - a. Clay's desire to escape the arena
 - b. The prophecy concerning the dragonets
 - c. The battle between Clay and Fjord
 - d. The political tension among the dragons
 - e. Clay's relationship with Queen Scarlet

12. How does the crowd react to the battle?
 - a. They are silent and attentive
 - b. They cheer for Clay
 - c. They demand more action and blood
 - d. They try to help Fjord
 - e. They leave the arena

13. What does Clay remember when Fjord prepares to use frostbreath?
 - a. The way to dodge it
 - b. Blizzard's lectures on IceWings
 - c. A strategy to defeat Fjord
 - d. How to use fire against it
 - e. His training with Kestrel

14. What does Queen Scarlet's interruption imply?
 - a. She is concerned for Clay's safety
 - b. She is bored and impatient
 - c. She wants to help Fjord
 - d. She is changing the rules of the fight
 - e. She wants to stop the fight

15. What does the phrase "kill or be killed" imply about the nature of the battle?
 - a. It is a friendly competition
 - b. It is a matter of survival
 - c. It is a training exercise
 - d. It is a test of intelligence
 - e. It is a ritual for young dragons

Chapter 19

1-8 9-15

1. What is the main idea of the passage?
 - a) Clay's struggle in a battle arena and his moral dilemma
 - b) Tsunami's failed escape attempt
 - c) Peril's mysterious background
 - d) Queen Scarlet's leadership
 - e) The importance of friendship in tough times

2. Who are the prisoners Clay is concerned about in the beginning?
 - a) Tsunami, Fjord, and Starflight
 - b) Blizzard, Peril, and Sunny
 - c) Tsunami, Blizzard, and Starflight
 - d) Fjord, Sunny, and Glory
 - e) Clay, Tsunami, and Glory

3. Why does Clay feel guilty after Fjord's death?
 - a) He enjoyed Fjord's suffering
 - b) He couldn't save Fjord
 - c) He didn't kill Fjord himself
 - d) He thought Fjord deserved to die
 - e) He planned Fjord's death with Peril

4. What distracts Fjord during the fight?
 - a) A roar from Queen Scarlet
 - b) The arrival of SkyWing guards
 - c) Tsunami's struggle in the net
 - d) An attack from Starflight
 - e) A command from the queen

5. What is Clay's reaction to the black drops that hit Fjord?

- He cheers
- He runs away
- He feels relieved
- He feels sick
- He ignores it

6. Which character shows concern for the prisoners on the rock towers?

- Fjord
- Tsunami
- Peril
- Queen Scarlet
- Clay

7. What can we infer about Queen Scarlet from the passage?

- She is fair and just
- She dislikes battles
- She enjoys causing pain and chaos
- She is afraid of Tsunami
- She avoids using poison

8. Why does Clay think the prophecy is doomed?

- He believes the prophecy is false
- He thinks his friends will betray him
- He feels he can't fulfill his role
- He is afraid of Queen Scarlet
- He lacks support from his friends

9. What does Peril offer to do for Clay?

- Help him escape
- Provide him with food
- Protect him from the guards
- Find mud to heal his wounds
- Train him for battles

10. What is the tone of the passage when Clay interacts with Peril?

- Angry and vengeful
- Hopeful and excited
- Calm and nurturing
- Suspicious and wary
- Indifferent and cold

11. What does Clay realize about Queen Scarlet's intentions during Fjord's death?

- She wanted to punish Clay
- She was testing Peril's loyalty
- She wanted Clay to win
- She had a personal vendetta against Fjord
- She enjoyed watching the fight

12. Why does Peril feel conflicted about her role in the Sky Kingdom?

- She dislikes Queen Scarlet's rules
- She wants to be friends with the prisoners
- She is forced to eat black rocks to survive
- She wants to escape and explore the world
- She feels guilty about her powers

13. What does Peril's attitude towards Queen Scarlet suggest about her character?

- She is rebellious
- She is blindly loyal
- She is indifferent
- She is manipulative
- She is confused

14. What does the term "black rocks" refer to in the context of Peril's condition?

- A type of food
- Poison
- Healing medicine
- A curse
- Decorative stones

15. How does Clay's perspective on Peril change throughout the passage?

- From fear to hatred
- From indifference to anger
- From curiosity to friendship
- From distrust to understanding
- From love to disappointment

Chapter 20

1-8 9-15

1. What is the main theme of the passage?

- Friendship and loyalty
- Guilt and redemption
- Adventure and exploration
- Courage and sacrifice
- Love and betrayal

2. What is the primary setting of the story?

- A forest
- A mountain cave
- An arena
- A desert
- A castle

3. Who is Peril in relation to Clay?

- His sister
- His friend
- His enemy
- His mentor
- His mother

4. Why does Peril bring rabbits and cauldrons of mud to Clay?

- To feed him
- To keep the mud warm and help him
- To help him sleep
- To heal his wounds
- To distract him

5. How does Queen Scarlet view the trial process?

- As a way to ensure justice
- As a necessary formality
- As entertainment
- As a way to show mercy
- As an inconvenience

6. What does Vermilion argue for in the trial?

- Mercy for Kestrel
- A retrial
- A quick execution
- Kestrel's innocence
- Kestrel's exile

7. Why does Peril react strongly when Osprey speaks during the trial?

- She realizes he is lying
- She learns Kestrel might be her mother
- She disagrees with his defense
- She is angry at Queen Scarlet
- She thinks he is guilty

8. What does Peril decide to do at the end of the trial?

- Escape from Queen Scarlet
- Stand for Kestrel's defense
- Accept her fate
- Attack Queen Scarlet
- Leave the kingdom

9. What literary device is used when describing Peril's actions towards Clay?

- Simile
- Metaphor
- Personification

d) Hyperbole
e) Irony

10. What is the significance of the "Champion's Shield" in the story?

a) It is a weapon
b) It is a protective device
c) It is a legal tradition
d) It is a symbol of power
e) It is a type of armor

11. In the context of the passage, what does "subdued" most likely mean?

a) Loud and chaotic
b) Quiet and restrained
c) Angry and hostile
d) Energetic and lively
e) Sad and melancholic

12. What does "prosecution" mean in the context of the trial?

a) Defense lawyer
b) Accusation side
c) Judge's assistant
d) Prison guard
e) Witness

13. What does "scavenger" mean in the context of Osprey's story?

a) A bird of prey
b) A treasure hunter
c) A dragon enemy
d) A small animal
e) A human

14. What does "execution" mean in the context of Queen Scarlet's order?

a) A performance
b) A release from prison
c) A legal trial
d) A death sentence
e) A mission

15. In the passage, what does "indignantly" most likely mean?

a) Angrily
b) Happily
c) Fearfully
d) Calmly
e) Sadly

Chapter 21

1-8 9-15

1. What is the main idea of the passage?

a) Peril's loyalty to Queen Scarlet
b) The rivalry between Queen Scarlet and Queen Burn
c) The dragonets' struggle to escape their captors
d) Osprey's tragic fall and death
e) The prophecy of the dragonets

2. Who is Queen Scarlet's champion?

a) Osprey
b) Clay
c) Peril
d) Tsunami
e) Starflight

3. Why does Queen Scarlet drop Osprey from the sky?

a) To punish him for teaching Peril
b) To show her power over the dragons
c) To teach Peril a lesson
d) To demonstrate the consequences of disobedience
e) To make a point to the audience

4. What conclusion can be drawn about Peril's relationship with Queen Scarlet?

a) Peril is loyal to Queen Scarlet
b) Peril fears Queen Scarlet
c) Peril is plotting against Queen Scarlet
d) Peril respects Queen Scarlet
e) Peril is indifferent to Queen Scarlet

5. What does Peril decide to do after Osprey's fall?

a) She decides to leave Queen Scarlet
b) She agrees to fight for Kestrel's freedom
c) She plans to escape with Clay and the dragonets
d) She seeks revenge against Queen Scarlet
e) She decides to betray Kestrel

6. What is the significance of the wire on Clay's talon?

a) It is a symbol of his imprisonment
b) It is a tool for his escape
c) It is a gift from Peril
d) It is a sign of his loyalty
e) It is a reminder of his past

7. What does Queen Scarlet hope to achieve by bringing Burn to the arena?

a) To show off her power
b) To intimidate the dragonets
c) To ally with Burn
d) To demonstrate the success of her games
e) To entertain her guest

8. How does Peril react to Osprey's death?

a) She blames herself
b) She blames Queen Scarlet
c) She vows to avenge him
d) She remains indifferent
e) She becomes more loyal to Queen Scarlet

9. What does the phrase "Queen Scarlet fluttered delicately back onto her balcony perch" suggest about her character?

a) She is delicate and gentle
b) She is graceful and composed
c) She is weak and fragile
d) She is cunning and manipulative
e) She is nervous and insecure

10. What does Clay hope to achieve by playing the wires like a harp?

a) To entertain himself
b) To signal Peril for help
c) To annoy the guards
d) To practice his musical skills
e) To calm the other prisoners

11. What does the term "Champion's Shield" refer to in the passage?

a) A shield used in battle
b) A special rank among the dragons
c) The right of the champion to defend a prisoner
d) A prize given to the winner of the games
e) A protective barrier in the arena

12. What does the author imply about Burn's personality through her actions?

a) She is kind and merciful
b) She is cruel and ruthless c) She is wise and just
d) She is fearful and paranoid
e) She is timid and shy

13. What does Peril's hesitation to touch Osprey indicate about her?

a) She fears him
b) She respects him
c) She knows her touch could harm him
d) She dislikes him

e) She is indifferent to his fate

14. Which detail best supports the idea that the dragonets are in a dire situation?
 a) Clay's missing wire
 b) The arrival of Burn
 c) Peril's determination to fight for Kestrel
 d) Queen Scarlet's speech to the arena
 e) The singing of the prisoners

15. What does the term "gladiator fights" in the passage refer to?
 a) Battles between dragons for entertainment
 b) Training sessions for the dragonets
 c) Ceremonial rituals
 d) Diplomatic negotiations
 e) Friendly competitions among the dragons

Chapter 22

1-8 9-15

1. What is the main idea of the passage?
 a) Queen Scarlet's plans for her birthday
 b) The dragonets' plan to escape
 c) Peril's loyalty and conflict
 d) Burn's desire to kill the dragonets
 e) The prophecy of the dragonets

2. Why does Queen Scarlet order Peril out of her room?
 a) To punish her
 b) To make room for the dragonets
 c) To assert her authority
 d) To prepare for a meeting
 e) To avoid a confrontation

3. What does Clay notice about the full-length portrait of Queen Scarlet?
 a) It has been stolen
 b) It has been moved to a different room
 c) It is covered in mud
 d) It has been reduced to ashes
 e) It has been repaired

4. What is Burn's suggestion for dealing with the dragonets?
 a) To keep them as prisoners
 b) To make them fight in the arena
 c) To kill them to break the prophecy
 d) To use them as bargaining chips
 e) To send them away

5. How does Queen Scarlet plan to deal with the dragonets in the arena?
 a) By letting them escape
 b) By showcasing their weakness
 c) By secretly helping them
 d) By allying with Burn
 e) By training them to fight

6. What does Tsunami's question about hatching evil plans suggest?
 a) She is scared
 b) She is defiant
 c) She is confused
 d) She is plotting against the queens
 e) She is indifferent

7. Why is Peril's touch significant in the story?
 a) It can heal wounds
 b) It can burn through metal
 c) It can put out fires
 d) It can freeze objects
 e) It can create illusions

8. What does the word "smoldered" in the context of the ashes mean?
 a) Burned slowly with smoke but no flame
 b) Disappeared completely
 c) Sparked brightly
 d) Cooled down quickly
 e) Turned into dust

9. What conclusion can be drawn about Peril's feelings towards Clay?
 a) She is indifferent to him
 b) She dislikes him
 c) She is afraid of him
 d) She cares about him
 e) She is jealous of him

10. What is the significance of the black rocks scattered by Queen Scarlet?
 a) They are magical stones
 b) They create a barrier of fire
 c) They are gifts for the dragonets
 d) They are used for decoration
 e) They mark the arena boundaries

11. What does Peril agree to do for the dragonets?
 a) Help them escape immediately
 b) Fight in the arena for them
 c) Rescue Sunny from the birdcage
 d) Take them to Queen Scarlet
 e) Find food for them

12. Why do the dragonets view Sunny as important?
 a) She is the strongest fighter
 b) She is a key part of the prophecy
 c) She is their leader
 d) She is like a little sister to them
 e) She knows the way out

13. What does Burn's appearance (red-stained claws and teeth, scar) indicate about her character?
 a) She is wise and just
 b) She is kind and merciful
 c) She is experienced and battle-hardened
 d) She is young and inexperienced
 e) She is gentle and nurturing

14. What does Tsunami do to help Clay in the cave?
 a) She heals his wounds
 b) She cleans his scales in the pool
 c) She feeds him
 d) She teaches him to fight
 e) She gives him advice

15. What plan does Starflight have at the end of the passage?
 a) To fight Burn and Scarlet
 b) To ask Peril for help
 c) To escape from the cave
 d) To hide from the queens
 e) To steal the black rocks

Chapter 23

1-8 9-15

1. What is the main idea of the passage?
 a) Queen Scarlet's celebration plans
 b) Peril helping the dragonets escape
 c) The dragonets planning their next battle
 d) Burn's strategies against the dragonets
 e) The discovery of the waterfall cave

2. What solution does Starflight suggest for escaping the cave?
 a) Fighting their way out

b) Using Peril to move the fire rocks
 c) Digging a tunnel
 d) Calling for help
 e) Waiting for reinforcements

3. Why is Peril able to move the fire rocks?
 a) She is immune to fire
 b) She has magical powers
 c) She is very strong
 d) She knows a secret spell
 e) She is wearing protective gear

4. What is the initial reaction of Peril when Starflight suggests moving the fire rocks?
 a) She is excited
 b) She is hesitant
 c) She is angry
 d) She is scared
 e) She is confused

5. What does Peril suggest as a hiding place for the dragonets?
 a) A cave below the waterfall
 b) The arena
 c) The central hall of balconies
 d) Queen Scarlet's throne room
 e) The birdcage

6. Why do the dragonets need to wait until tomorrow to free Garnet and Sunny?
 a) It is too dangerous to attempt it now
 b) They need more help
 c) The fire rocks are too hot to move d) Queen Scarlet is too close by
 e) They are too tired to continue

7. How does Tsunami react when Clay speaks to Peril?
 a) She agrees with Clay
 b) She gets angry at Clay
 c) She is surprised by Peril's reaction
 d) She steps on Clay's tail to silence him
 e) She runs away

8. What does Peril do with the fire rocks to help the dragonets escape?
 a) She throws them into the pool
 b) She moves them outside the cave entrance
 c) She puts them out with water
 d) She hides them in her room
 e) She gives them to the guards

9. Why is it important for the dragonets to keep Peril happy?
 a) She is their only ally
 b) She knows the way out
 c) She can control the fire rocks
 d) She is very powerful
 e) She has a secret plan

10. What does Clay notice about the prey at the feast?
 a) They are all dragons
 b) They are running around in fear
 c) They are being treated well
 d) They are fighting each other
 e) They are hiding under tables

11. What does the word "tickles" mean in the context of Peril's reaction to fire?
 a) Hurts a lot
 b) Burns slightly
 c) Feels funny
 d) Causes no sensation
 e) Feels cold

12. How does Starflight suggest they avoid detection at the feast?
 a) By fighting their way through

b) By flying away quickly
 c) By hiding and moving quietly
 d) By distracting the guards
 e) By blending in with the crowd

13. What does Clay realize about his talons after touching Peril?
 a) They are scorched
 b) They are glowing but undamaged
 c) They are stronger than before
 d) They have magical powers
 e) They are crumbling to ash

14. What happens when Queen Scarlet arrives at the tunnel?
 a) She captures all the dragonets
 b) She thanks Peril and sends her away
 c) She fights with Peril
 d) She orders the soldiers to attack
 e) She retreats to her throne room

15. What does Peril's look of agony at Clay suggest?
 a) She is angry at Clay
 b) She is sad about betraying Clay
 c) She is scared of Queen Scarlet
 d) She is in physical pain
 e) She is confused about the plan