Florence is famous for its art and buildings and is always full of tourists. But it is also a city full of life and things to do for the people of Florence. The local people work a lot, but they have time to have fun too. There are a lot of cinemas and theatres, night clubs and bars. Shops usually open at about nine thirty. They close at lunchtime and open again at three thirty. They never close before half past seven. In the evenings people love walking and shopping. Restaurants don't open very late in Florence and they usually close before 11. Young people eat at home and then go out late in the evening. Saturday night is very busy and there are people out having fun in the night clubs and bars, and they leave at one or two in the morning. Local families often go away at the weekends. In the summer they drive to the sea or the mountains.
