

1 Complete the email with the correct form of the verbs below.

come get (x2) go pull set stop take

To: frank@email.com

Hi Frank

We went to Petra yesterday. We <sup>1</sup> _____ off from Amman, the capital, very early in the morning. During the coach journey, we <sup>2</sup> _____ up at a small town for a break. We finally arrived at Petra and it was amazing! Andy <sup>3</sup> _____ off to climb the hills to get a better view of the city. I saw quite a few people <sup>4</sup> _____ around on camels, but I didn't fancy exploring the place in this way! I <sup>5</sup> _____ across some local people selling beautiful handmade souvenirs and bought a few. Andy wanted to <sup>6</sup> _____ over in a local hotel to <sup>7</sup> _____ in more of the monuments the next day, but I wanted to <sup>8</sup> _____ back to the capital so we could visit that too. There's so much to see in Jordan! More news tomorrow!

Bye for now!

Amy

Match the sentence halves.

- |                           |                               |
|---------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 She was sorry           | a split up with Nick?         |
| 2 Do you regret           | b not to keep his promise.    |
| 3 Wouldn't it be sensible | c to go to bed early?         |
| 4 Hasn't she              | d not to lose her friendship. |
| 5 Weren't you             | e at the café yesterday?      |
| 6 He is certain           | f not inviting Jane?          |
| 7 He'll be lucky          | g not to see him at the club. |

Continue the sentences in any way you want:

Neither...

Not only...

This time tomorrow...

