

MID-TERM PRACTICE

A. Complete the conversations with the following food idioms.

to be in a pickle_ to wake up and smell the coffee_ to spill the beans_ to go bananas_ take the cake

1. A: I can't believe I forgot my homework at home again. I'm really _____now.

B: Don't worry, I can lend you my notes.

2. A: Hey, Sarah, you need _____. You can't keep procrastinating on your assignments.

B: I know, I'll start working on it right away. Thanks for the reminder.

3. A: When I saw the surprise party you planned for me, I _____!

B: I'm glad you liked it. Happy birthday!

4. A: Did you see the crazy dance moves he was doing at the party last night? He really

B: I know, he was the life of the party.

B. Get creative with your writing.

to be in a pickle_ to wake up and smell the coffee_ to spill the beans_ to go bananas_ take the cake_ butter me up_ have a bigger fish to fry_ a hard nut to crack.

Write a dialogue between two friends discussing a situation where one of them is "in a pickle" and needs help. Include as many idioms as you can.

