19 Read the article about Jack's family. For questions (1–5), decide if each statement is true (T) or false (F). An example (0) has been done for you.

My family

My name's Jack. I'm 22 and I'm a student. I study English and want to be a writer one day. I live in Australia with my two brothers and sister. My brothers are both engineers and my sister's a student, too, but she studies design.

Many people think our house is beautiful. My dad's an architect and designed the house himself. My sister wants to work with him after university. My mum's a Japanese teacher. She's really good at languages and can speak German and French as well.

I've got grandparents but my mum's parents don't live here. They live in the UK, near London. We go in the summer but this year we aren't going – we have exams. They're coming here. It's fun to see them and spend time with them. My dad's parents are from Ireland but they live near us. We see them at weekends. I like going there. They have a friendly dog called Jasper.

In my free time I play the drums. I'm in a group with two friends. We play rock music in the evenings. We played at my brother's birthday party last year. It was good but we aren't ready for concerts yet!

0 Jack's brothers do the same job. (T) / F

1 Jack's sister works at his father's company. T / F

2 Jack's mum teaches German and French. T / F

3 The family are visiting the UK this summer. T / F

4 Jack's grandparents have a pet dog. T / F

5 Jack's friends are in a band with him. T / F
