

Adverbs have different functions. They tell us when, how or where actions are performed:

Eg: Yesterday the animals had a party. (Yesterday is an adverb of time. It tells when)

Eg: They danced wildly. (Wildly is an adverb of manner. It tells us how).

Eg: A lot of animals were there. (There is an adverb of place. It tells us Where)

TYPES	ADVERBS	EXAMPLES
Adverbs of Time	Already, ago, before, yet, never, yesterday, soon, lately...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I have heard this before.</li> <li>I have not seen him since.</li> <li>I haven't spoken to her yet.</li> <li>She'll be here soon.</li> </ul>
Adverb of Place	Here, everywhere, near, nearby, down, away, backwards, upwards...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Is that your scarf there?</li> <li>I've lived here for about two years.</li> <li>I walked backwards towards the door.</li> <li>She turned her face upwards to the sun.</li> </ul>
Adverb of Manner	So, slowly, badly, beautifully, delightfully, loudly...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The soldiers fought bravely.</li> <li>Is that so?</li> <li>She dresses beautifully.</li> <li>We waited anxiously by the phone.</li> </ul>

ADVERBS:

- ❖ Adverbs of time tells when an action happened.
- ❖ Adverb of place tells where the action happened.
- ❖ Adverb of manner tells an action takes place.

Put these sentences in its correct order.

1. Yesterday/ she/ ice-cream/ ate.

_____.

2. Soccer/ today/ played/ he.

_____.

3. Now/ cleaning/ I/ am/ my/ room.

_____.

4. My parents/ tomorrow/ will/ arrive.

_____.

5. Test/ her/ was yesterday.

_____.

Write correct Adverb of Time and Place at the end of each sentence.

6. Yesterday my sister and I decided to make apple pancakes. _____
7. We had never made them. _____
8. We got the ingredients out. _____
9. Soon we started mixing ingredients. _____
10. Then I knocked over the flour. _____
11. The flour flew everywhere. _____
12. We immediately started to clean. _____
13. We didn't have any flour left to make a batter again. _____
14. We put everything back. _____
15. We went to a restaurant and ate apple pancakes there. _____

Write correct Adverb of Manner and Place at the end of each sentence.

16. Warisi ran quickly. _____

17. He held the kite string tightly. _____

18. A breeze blew lightly across the veranda. _____

19. He hastily tossed the kite into the air. _____

20. It floated gently to the ground. _____