Adjectives : - ed or -ing?

Adjectives ending in -ed describe how a person feels. - Mary is tired. She has been working so hard.
Adjectives ending in -ing describe what things are like. - Daniel made an amazing trip.

Mike heard a noise and got (scare) .....

The meeting was really (bore) .....

Peter found the food (disgust) .....

John was (shock) ..... when he saw the bill.

Sheila was (surprise)..... when David proposed.

Helen's parents were so (please) ..... when she graduated.

Bad news are always (annoy) .....

He couldn't stop reading. It was such an (interest) .....book.

Derik is happy. He has made an (amaze)..... discovery.

Visiting the desert is (overwhelm) .....

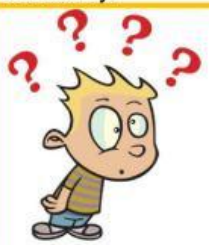

Cleaning all the windows is (tire) .....

It has been raining for weeks and Lina is getting (depress) .....

I find the circus seals (amuse) ....

Your question is (confuse)..... .....

Monica is (excite) ..... She won the competition.

Ben has spent too much and now he is (worry) .....

Jim has forgotten the money. He was really (embarrass) .....

Yoga is very (relax) .....

Peter has been running. He is (exhaust).....

The performance of the team was (disappoint) .....

LIVEWORKSHEETS