

23 Manners

A Table manners

In Japan, it is considered rude to cross your chopsticks, lick them, or stick them vertically into a bowl of rice and leave them pointing upwards.

In France, don't offer to split the bill: it is not regarded as very sophisticated. You either pay the bill, or someone else does.

In the Philippines, it is considered good manners to eat all the food on your plate.

In Afghanistan, wasting food is unacceptable. Eating or talking with your mouth full is viewed as being discourteous.

In China, it is customary to pass food to the elderly first. It can be offensive to remove rice from a bowl with a spoon.
