

Relative pronouns

No. _____ Class _____ Date _____

9th Form – Extra Practice

Complete the sentences with WHO / WHICH or WHOSE

1. The boy _____ mother is a teacher is a student at the same school.
2. A blog is a site _____ can easily be created at home.
3. YouTube is very important for bands and singers _____ want to become famous.
4. John and Hank Green are the brothers _____ started making videos on YouTube in 2007.
5. Facebook, Instagram and WhatsApp are social networking sites _____ are very popular among teenagers.

B. Complete the sentences with WHO or WHICH and put the pronoun in brackets when it is possible to OMIT it.

Eg: This is the blogger (who) I met at the party.

1. The iPhone _____ I have just bought is fantastic.
2. Teens _____ use social networking obsessively should change their habits.
3. People _____ want to buy a laptop should ask for advice first.
4. The article _____ I read is about the effects of new technologies on teens.
5. The journalist _____ my father met at school is giving an interview.
6. There are lots of books at the library _____ are about new technologies.

C. Join the sentences by using the relative pronoun in brackets.

1. Teens usually know a lot about technology. They are called tech-savvy. (who)
Teens _____ usually know a lot about technology.
2. My grandfather bought a book. It teaches how to use a computer. (which)
My grandfather bought a book _____.
3. The man is an engineer. He is standing next to the computer. (who)
The man _____ is an engineer.
4. There are many schools. They don't allow students to use mobile phones in class. (which)
There are many schools _____.
5. Peter enjoys playing computer games. I met him in the Computers club. (who)
Peter _____ enjoys playing computer games.
6. The girl is buying a laptop. Her brother is a good friend of mine. (whose)
The girl _____ is buying a laptop.
7. This is the laptop. I saw it on sale at Worten last week. (which)
This is the laptop _____ at Worten last week.

C.1 – In which of the previous sentences is it possible to omit the relative pronoun. Write the number of the sentences below. Eg: 1,4

Sentences no: _____