A LOVELY CITY

Bucaramanga, the beautiful city of Colombia or the city of Parks is the capital of the department of Santander. In El Cacique shopping center there are excellent levels where we can find:

On level 1 there are many clothing stores, there is there are ice cream squares to enjoy with the family (Pospy, Mcflurry and Yogurteria).

Upstairs, where you can also find games for children, also we find Falabella's store.

On the third level, there are restaurants where we find a great diversity of food from some regions and from the beautiful city.

On the last level there is a Colombian cinema that is an excellent plan to share with the family, there is also a children's play area. The shopping center has a terrace where you can see a large part of the city and, there are several banks at different levels of the mall.

Finally the city of Bucaramanga there are many malls where we can find a diversity of warehouses, games, cinemas, restaurants, that we can find several tourist places which can be shared with the family and without a doubt, Bucaramanga is a beautiful city.
