

MOCK TEST

Vocabulary

- Traveling helped the children to _____ their knowledge of different cultures.
- Despite the increasing prices, we still maintain _____ rates for our products.
- Sarah is a _____ student who often gets reprimanded for breaking school rules.
- Adding more colorful pictures made the magazine more _____ to readers.
- To attract more customers, the company should _____ the application process for their services.
- Though he wasn't a politician, his opinions were _____ in influencing public policy.
- We reviewed the document _____ but couldn't locate the required information.
- The doctor will need to _____ a donor heart into the patient to save his life.

Parts of speech

- If not for his _____, I would have given up on this task long ago.
- The kitten was so _____ that everyone wanted to cuddle it.
- I kept receiving _____ messages that would stop abruptly once I answered.
- This reliable website allows students to find the information they need more quickly and _____.
- I would like to _____ most sincerely for any inconvenience caused.
- The majority of the community is fully _____ and thus remains protected against the disease for life.
- Studies indicate that students achieve better _____ when they stay at the same school.
- The committee explored methods of reducing poverty and promoting social _____ among the member nations.

MOCK TEST

Choose the best title for each paragraph

Resilience is the ability to bounce back from challenges and keep going. It's about staying strong even when things get tough. People with resilience find ways to learn and grow from difficult situations, turning setbacks into opportunities for success.

- A. "Strength Through Adversity"
- B. "Courageous Resilience"
- C. "Overcoming Challenges"
- D. "Building Inner Strength"

Creativity is thinking in new ways and coming up with fresh ideas. It's about being imaginative and finding different ways to solve problems. Creative people see things from unique angles, sparking innovation in art, technology, and everyday life.

- A. "Exploring Creative Solutions"
- B. "Innovative Thinking"
- C. "Imagination at Work"
- D. "Fostering Creativity"

Leadership is about guiding and inspiring others. Effective leaders have a vision and can motivate people to work together toward shared goals. They make decisions confidently and create a positive environment where everyone can succeed.

- A. "Inspiring Leadership"
- B. "Guiding with Vision"
- C. "Effective Leadership"
- D. "Leadership Excellence"

MOCK TEST

Choose the best implied main idea

Bird migration is a fascinating natural phenomenon observed worldwide. Each year, millions of birds travel great distances between breeding and wintering grounds. Migration patterns vary among species, with some traveling thousands of miles across continents while others migrate shorter distances within regions. Scientists study migration to understand its ecological importance and the factors influencing bird populations.

- A. Bird migration involves seasonal travel between breeding and wintering grounds, impacting global ecosystems.
- B. Scientists study bird migration to understand its ecological significance and population dynamics.
- C. Migration patterns vary among bird species, with some traveling long distances and others shorter routes.
- D. Bird migration is a natural phenomenon involving millions of birds traveling for breeding and survival.

Globalization refers to the interconnectedness of economies, cultures, and societies on a global scale. It involves the exchange of goods, services, ideas, and technologies among nations. Globalization has led to increased economic interdependence, cultural diversity, and technological advancements. While it offers opportunities for growth and development, globalization also presents challenges related to inequality, environmental sustainability, and cultural homogenization.

- A. Globalization involves economic, cultural, and technological interconnectedness among nations, impacting global dynamics.
- B. The exchange of goods, services, and ideas characterizes globalization, fostering economic interdependence and cultural diversity.
- C. Globalization offers opportunities and challenges, influencing economic, environmental, and cultural aspects worldwide.
- D. The interconnectedness of economies and societies defines globalization, driving global integration and diversity.