1 PRACTICAL ENGLISH!

Use the following adjectives in a form that you consider correct (-ed or -ing). Then, place the sentences in the order that you consider appropiate to tell a story.

DISAPPOINTED / DISAPPOINTING AMAZED / AMAZING AMUSED/ AMUSING

TIRED / TIRING BORED / BORING EXCITED / EXCITING

1. The afternoon drags on, with its usual mix of _____ meetings and _____ paperwork.
2. Every day, Mark starts his morning with the _____ sound of his alarm clock.
3. The commute to work is equally _____, adding to his sense of boredom.
4. The peaceful scenery is _____, and it amazes him how such beauty can exist in the middle of the city.
5. It may be a _____ and _____ day overall, but that one _____ moment makes it all worthwhile.
6. But then, during his lunch break, something _____ happens. He finds a new park in the city.
7. Finally, he heads home, _____ but grateful for the _____ discovery he made.
8. Already feeling _____, he drags himself out of bed, knowing another _____ day awaits him.
9. Yet, he carries the memory of the park with him, a small reminder that even in the most _____ and _____ days, there can be moments of _____ wonder.
10. His job is _____, filled with routine tasks that leave him feeling _____ with his career choices.

Rewrite the sentences in a chronological order so that you can tell a story:

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIKES AND DISLIKES!

Let's listen to two people talking about their preferences.
Before doing so, let's talk about your own preferences! Do you like...

COOKING

DUSTING

CLEANING THE BATHROOM

VACUUMING

DOING THE DISHES

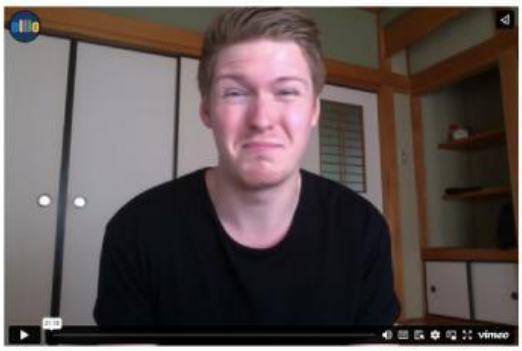

CHANTAL

LASSE

ANSWER:

1. Who dislikes dusting?
2. Who does not like any house duties?
3. Who dislikes doing the dishes the most?
4. Who loves doing chores in their free time?
5. Who enjoys vacuuming their apartment?
6. Who dislikes doing the dishes after cooking?
7. Who dislikes cleaning bathrooms?
8. Who dislikes dusting?

LIVEWORKSHEETS