4 Imagine that you found something unusual last week. Make notes answering the questions.

1 When did you find it? Last week on Friday
2 Where were you? At tennis club
3 Who were you with? alone
4 What did you find? Some tennis accessory
5 Why was it unusual? rare
6 What did you do with the object? took it
7 What happened in the end? Put it on the tennis racket

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

5 Look at the task and write your blog post. Use your notes from 4 and the words and expressions in the Writing bank to help you.

Last week you found something unusual. Write a blog post about what you found. Tell them:

- what you found and where
- why the object was unusual
- what you did next and what happened in the end.

A BLOG POST

Style: Informal. Use contractions.
Start: Have a name for your blog. Have a title for the blog post.
Useful expressions: To explain the sequence of events when talking about past events use At first, First of all, Then, Next, In the end, Finally. To say when things happened use Yesterday, When, Suddenly, A few minutes/hours/days later, The next day.

MY AMAZING DISCOVERY!

Did you see me in the newspapers yesterday?!

Yesterday evening I went out with my friend Max. We were going home when we came across a bag at the bus station. At first, we didn't know what to do. But then we decided to open it, to see who it belonged to. When we opened it, we couldn't believe it. It was full of money! There were also passports and plane tickets. We found out that there was £7,000 in there!

We went to the local police station but it was closed. Suddenly, we saw a police car. We decided to stop it as it was passing by. We explained the whole story. The police were a bit surprised, but very grateful. They contacted the owner. He was happy, too. In the end, he didn't give us a reward, but that doesn't matter because Max and I knew we did the right thing.
