Grammar in Use

Can & Should

WHAT ARE MODAL AUXILIARY VERBS

They are used along with a main verb to express ability, request, possibility, or suggestions

For Example:

- I CAN run very fast.
- CAN you help me with this math problem?
- He CAN go to the party if he passes all his classes.
- You SHOULD go to the doctor when you feel sick.

STRUCTURES

Subject + MAV + verb in base form+ complement
We should be on time for the meeting

Subject + MAV+ not + verb in base form+ complement
They shouldn't play alone in the park.

MAV + Subject + verb in base form + complement + T. E. + ?
Can I try that delicious cake?

A. Write sentences using the information in brackets.

1. (Mike - work) _____
2. (Maggie - pray) _____
3. (Luis - watch) _____
4. (Eliah - dance) _____
5. (Jimmy - play) _____
6. (They - cook) _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS