

Andy Warhol was an American painter and filmmaker. He was famous for his pictures of everyday things, like tins of soup and Coca-Cola bottles, and portraits of celebrities such as Marilyn Monroe.

He was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. His parents were born in Slovakia and immigrated to the US in 1914. His father was a coal miner. The family Catholic, and Warhol was religious all his life.

As a child, Andy Warhol was often ill, and was not at school for a long time. He was a student of art in Pittsburgh. In 1949 he moved to New York. Here he was a painter in advertising and magazines.

In the 1960s he founded The Factory, a centre for artists, musicians, and writers.

All his life Warhol was afraid of doctors and hospitals. He      in a hospital in New York after an operation.

went started

was

died

were

Princess Diana was the first wife of Charles, Prince of Wales.

She was born in Sandringham, England. Her father was John, Earl Spencer, and her mother was Frances, Viscountess Althorp. They both friends of the Royal family. Her parents in 1969. She wasn't a happy child.

Diana was at a lot of schools, but she wasn't a good student. In London she was a dance teacher and a teacher in a children's school. She Prince Charles in 1980 at a party.

She was 20 years old when she married Prince Charles. She had two sons, William and Harry, but her marriage wasn't happy. She and Charles divorced in 1996. After her divorce, Diana was very busy with charity work, visiting hospitals and poor countries in Africa.

She died in a car accident in Paris in August 1997. She was with Dodi Al-Fayed.

The logo for Live Worksheets, featuring the word "LIVE" in a yellow box with red and blue outlines, followed by "WORKSHEETS" in a large, bold, dark blue sans-serif font.

