Can you keep a secret?

1.Complete the questions in the conversation. Use How come? once. Sometimes there's more than one answer.

A:I went to a party last night.

B: Did you? Whose?

A: Belinda's. You know, my friend from work.

B: Oh yes. What..... ?

A: It was quite good. I chatted to various people.

B: ..... ?

A: Well, I talked for a long time to Vicky, you know, from school.

B: Of course. Brainy Vicky. ..... ?

A: She's fine. Got a good job. But actually, she's not very happy at the moment.

B: ..... ?

A: I don't know if I can tell you. Look, can you keep a secret, ... ?

B: Of course I can. So, what..... ?

A: She's having a terrible time with her boyfriend Sam.

B: ..... ?

A: You remember. He was a year above us at school.

B: ..... ?

You know. Quite tall. Dark curly hair. Nice smile.

B: Oh yes, I remember now. ..... use to wear glasses?

A: That's right. But he doesn't any more. Anyway, they had been talking about getting married and eveything, when suddenly he went all funny and cold towards her.

B: ..... ?

A: Well, turns out he's been seeing another girl as well lately!

B: No! ..... ?

A: You'll never guess! Your neighbour, Tessa!

B: Not Tessa! I can'r believe it! .....Vicky..... now?

A: She's going to try to forgive him. Apparently, he's very sorry. But don't tell anyone.
