★ ALL STARS ★

SENTENCE TRANSFORMATION

Transform the sentences using the word given to fill in the blank in the answer sheet. Remember to use up to 5 words in each blank.

1) In Argentina, environmentally irresponsible practices, which have been prevalent for years, have led to significant degradation of natural resources. (PERSISTED)

2) Despite these irresponsibilities, there have been notable worldwide achievements in the preservation of Argentina's diverse ecosystems. (AMONG)

3) Many activists, who are deeply committed to the cause, are pushing for stricter regulations to ensure the sustainable use of natural resources. (ADVOCATING)

4) Environmental activism in Argentina, which has gained momentum recently, includes numerous initiatives aimed at protecting the country's unique biodiversity. (SAFEGUARDING)

5) The preservation of Argentina's environment recquires crucial efforts from both the government and its citizens for future generations. (WHICH)

6) Recent achievements in environmental preservation, which are widely celebrated, highlight the country's allegiance to a greener future. (COMMITMENT)

7) Concessions granted to corporations, which often ignore environmental concerns, have prioritized economic gain over environmental protection, leading to widespread criticism. (RESULTING)

8) Argentina's environmental infrastructure, which is currently inadequate, needs significant improvements to support sustainable development. (LACKING)

9)Grassroots initiatives, which are often underfunded, have shown remarkable perseverance in the face of governmental and corporate irresponsibilities. (DESPITE)

10) The country's environmental achievements, which include significant conservation efforts, are a testament to the hard work and dedication of local activists. (REFLECT)

11) Sustainable resource management, which is essential for long-term ecological health, is crucial for the preservation of Argentina's environment. (KEY)

12) Increased environmental activism, which has been growing steadily, is pushing for better infrastructure and accountable concessions to protect Argentina's natural heritage. (RESPONSIBLE)

13) With unwavering commitment, environmental activists in Argentina, who face numerous challenges, continue to fight for the preservation of the nation's natural resources and ecosystems. (STRIVE)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

ANSWER SHEET:

1) Environmentally careless actions in Argentina, _____ for years, have caused substantial harm to natural resources.

2) Despite these careless actions, significant progress has been made in preserving Argentina's diverse ecosystems,_____ most varied globally.

3) Numerous dedicated activists, _____ stricter regulations, make efforts to guarantee the sustainable use of natural resources.

4) Environmental activism in Argentina, which has recently surged, includes various initiatives _____ country's unique biodiversity.

5) The preservation of Argentina's environment,_____ future generations, requires a collective effort from both the government and its citizens.

6) Recent successes in environmental preservation, which are widely celebrated, demonstrate the country's _____ more sustainable future.

7) Concessions given to corporations, which often ignore environmental concerns, have prioritized financial gain over environmental protection, _____ criticism.

8) Argentina's environmental infrastructure, _____, needs significant improvements to support sustainable development.

9) Grassroots initiatives, which frequently lack funding, have shown remarkable perseverance _____ negligence.

10) The country's environmental accomplishments, which include major conservation efforts, _____ dedication of local activists.

11) Sustainable resource management, _____ long-term ecological health, is crucial for the preservation of Argentina's environment.

12) Growing environmental activism, which has been steadily increasing, is advocating for better infrastructure _____ concessions to safeguard Argentina's natural heritage.

13) With unwavering commitment, environmental activists in Argentina, who face numerous challenges,_____ the preservation of the nation's natural resources and ecosystems.

LIVEWORKSHEETS