Vocabulary Unit 1 ★

Memories

1 Match 1–6 with a–g to make sentences.

That girl over there reminds _b_

1 Does this book belong ___
2 Mum wants me to get ___
3 Did you get your calculator ___
4 We're really looking ___
5 When Grandpa looks ___
6 Maria came ___

a back on when he was a boy, he feels sentimental.
b me of my cousin, Stella.
c to you, Joseph?
d rid of all my old clothes.
e back from Tamsin, Andrew?
f forward to seeing you on Friday.
g across these photos while she was at her grandmother's.

2 Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

You look for things – like your mobile phone – because you want to find them. _T_

1 People are happy when you forget things like their birthday. ___
2 When you keep something – like your favourite old toy – you get rid of it. ___
3 When you leave something behind at a friend's house – like your jacket – they bring it with them the next time they meet you. ___
4 When people lose things, for example, their house keys or their wallet, they really want to get them back. ___
5 When you recognize someone that you know in a café or a restaurant, you usually don't say anything to them. ___
6 People sometimes feel upset when you don't remember their name. ___

Describing objects

3 Are the adjectives positive (P) or negative (N)?

valuable _P_
1 old-fashioned ___
2 useful ___
3 rotten ___
4 fresh ___
5 unpopular ___
6 worthless ___

4 Label the photos with the adjectives in the box.

| brand new   rare   ~~fragile~~   fashionable |
| rotten   damaged |

fragile

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____

4 _____

5 _____

5 Choose the correct words.

My BEST and WORST gifts list by Dylan

BEST gift ☺

The stamp I got from my Grandfather Archie for my 16th birthday – it is very old and _valuable_ / fresh. My grandfather paid about £95 for it!

It was used in England from 1887 to 1900 and it has the face of Queen Victoria on it. It's (1) brand new / undamaged and quite (2) rare / useless. I love it!

WORST gift ☹

The bicycle my Aunt Fern gave me for my 15th birthday – it was (3) useful / old-fashioned AND it looked like a girl's bike!

I knew the bike was (4) used / rotten because the seat was (5) tough / damaged.

I wanted a (6) popular / worthless bicycle like a Santa Cruz or a Marin! My Aunt Fern tried, but, sadly, I really don't like it!

Ti ng Anh 9 Friends Plus