

Read each sentence and the four answer choices. Three of the choices are synonyms (words that have similar meaning) for the boldfaced word. Cross out the word or phrase that is NOT a synonym.

1. The goal of the advertising campaign was to sell more cars to women.
a. purpose c. hope
b. plan d. ~~future~~
2. Women with young children are part of a growing market.
a. group of people c. group of buyers
b. group of stores d. group of customers
3. The ad's message was that the new cars were safe.
a. idea c. style
b. information d. main idea
4. The ads were successful because many women believed in the safety of the cars.
a. effective c. having a good result
b. safe d. convincing
5. As a result, the ads convinced mothers to buy the cars.
a. encouraged c. persuaded
b. pushed d. forced
6. However, the ads failed to sell cars to single women without children.
a. didn't sell c. were unable to sell
b. couldn't sell d. tried to sell
7. The advertising campaign will become global next year.
a. multinational c. organized
b. worldwide d. international
8. Ads for the competition will not become global.
a. race c. other sellers
b. other companies d. different firms
9. Commercial advertising is now allowed on Chinese billboards.
a. business c. product
b. company d. official
10. If a product is exotic, people in other countries think of it as unusual.
a. uncommon c. different
b. ordinary d. exciting