VI. Read and report the coach's words.

"Practice hard every day. Don't skip your training sessions. Please remember to warm up before the exercises.

The competition will be tough, but I know we can win. Are you ready to give it your all? Do you understand the importance of teamwork? We need to support each other. How will you stay motivated during the competition? If you have any questions, feel free to ask me. Believe in yourselves and give your best effort."

The competition is just around the corner, and just a short while ago, the coach gave a set of instructions. He told the team to practice hard every day. He told them not to skip our training sessions. He reminded them to warm up before the exercises. He mentioned that the competition will be tough, but he knew we could win. He asked us if we were ready to give it our all, and also asked us whether we understood the importance of teamwork. He mentioned that we need to support each other. Finally, he asked us how we would stay motivated during the competition. He said that in case we had any questions, we should feel free to ask him. He encouraged us to believe in ourselves and give our best effort."
