

The bird who said 'thank You'

My friends and I were in the park celebrating Lama's birthday with a picnic when we heard an unusual sound. We saw a weak, unhappy, and untidy colorful bird in a tree. We thought it wanted food. we stood back because we didn't want the bird to feel uncomfortable.

It looked at us for a long time then flew down and started to drink the water. It ate the cheese in three big bites. We took some pictures because we wanted to show our friends in school. After a couple of minutes, it shook its feathers, gave a big 'squawk' (maybe the bird said 'thank you') and flew away.
