

2.3 Cellphones

Vocabulary Cellphones

- 1 Label the parts of a cellphone: display screen, battery, Bluetooth hands-free device, SIM-card, keypad, camera & video recorder. Listen and check, then say.

- 2 Do you have a cellphone? What model/type/make is it? What do you use it for? Tell your partner.

- surf/browse the Net
- play music
- take and send photos
- watch TV/videos
- call friends
- organize files
- email friends
- listen to the radio
- play games
- send text messages/text friends
- record videos
- share music
- set as an alarm clock

Reading

CELLPHONES

JUST HOW SMART ARE THEY GET?

As amazing as the latest smartphones are, the cellphone industry is really just getting started. The predicted capabilities of future-generation cellphones are simply mind-boggling!

Check these words

mind-boggling, pace, uber-device, built-in projector, roll up, encoding, detect, sensor, telepathy, incorporate, nanotechnology, alter ego

- 1 The reason people may use TVs less in the future is
- cellphones will have bigger screen displays.
 - TV programs will be made especially for cellphones.
 - cellphones will be able to project images onto walls.