Countable & Uncountable nouns

A. Choose the correct answer:

Jonathan is at the supermarket. He's buying a lot of / much things because he doesn't want to go shopping every day. First, he's getting some things he needs for the bathroom: a / some toilet paper, a / some soap and a / some toothbrush. Then, he's buying some / little food: a few / a little croissants, a few / a little eggs, some / any bacon, a few / some bread, a / some butter, a / some honey, and a / some bottle of milk for breakfast. Jonathan likes salads, so he's buying a few / a little vegetables: some / few tomatoes, much / some cucumbers and some / a few lettuce. For his lunch he's getting a / some meat, a / some pasta, a / some potatoes, a / some rice, and a few / a little sausages. He's got little / a little salt at home so he needs to buy some / any of that, too. For snacks he's getting a / some yoghurt and some / little fruit: a / some apples, a / some watermelon, a few / a little bananas and a few / a little strawberries. He isn't buying some / any crisps or some / any chocolate, but he's getting some I any ice cream. He is also buying some / little orange juice, a few / a little cans of lemonade and lots of / a lots of water. Finally, he is buying some / any pencils, little / four blue pens, a / some batteries and a / some box of paper clips. Phew! I hope he has a lot of / many money on him!

B. Jonathan's friend, Ellie, is also at the supermarket. Write a(n) or some in front of the things in her shopping trolley.

1)	bananas
2)	pineapple
3)	watermelon
4)	cheese
5)	potatoes
6)	milk
7)	bread
8)	eggs
9)	juice
10)_	peppers
11)_	apples
12)_	can of beans
13)	oranges
14)_	ham
15)_	wine

C. Find the odd one out and write C if it is countable, U if it is uncountable

1) money, euro, news, time
2) tea, salt, potato, parsley
3) bottle, bag, packet, coffee
4) bread, tomato, cheese, ham
5) butter, sausage, carrot, apple
6) onion, biscuit, sandwich, meat
7) orange, egg, sweet, rice
8) juice, lemonade, cup, cola
9) dozen, bacon, kilo, slice
10) vinegar, peach, prawn, biscuit	