

Invertebrates

I. Fill in the blanks. Choose your answer from the box.

vertebrate	arachnids	metamorphosis
endoskeleton	invertebrate	exoskeleton

1. An animal that has a backbone is called _____ and an animal without a backbone is called an _____.
2. Scorpions, spiders, crabs, and insects are _____ because they have bodies called _____ and jointed legs.
3. Insects undergo _____ where they develop their body structure into an adult.

II. Identify whether each characteristic is for insects or arachnids.

- _____ 1. They have eight legs.
- _____ 2. They have six legs, a head, thorax, and abdomen.
- _____ 3. They undergo metamorphosis.
- _____ 4. They are meat-eaters.

III. Identify if the animal in the picture is an insect or arachnid.

