- Why is happiness central to Aristotle's theory?
 - Because it is so difficult for people to attain
 - Because it is valued for its own sake by all people
 - Because it is a means to a productive life
 - Because most people agree about what happiness is
- According to the professor, why does Aristotle think that fame cannot provide true happiness?
 - Fame cannot be obtained without help from other people.
 - Fame cannot be obtained by all people.
 - Fame does not last forever.
 - People cannot share their fame with other people.

- Listen again to part of the lecture by playing Track 4. Then answer the question.

What does the professor mean when she says this?

- Teaching is not a highly valued profession in society.
- She may change professions in order to earn more money.
- The reason she is a teacher has little to do with her salary.
- More people would become teachers if the salaries were higher.
