

CONDITIONALS TYPE 2 AND 3

Read the sentence and choose the correct option.

1. If we didn't race around cities, we more enjoyable memories from our trips.
2. She more people, if she hadn't been so focused on visiting all the tourist attractions.
3. If she to Japan unexpectedly, she would have never changed her mind.
4. If I had plenty of free time I more often.
5. She wouldn't travel as frequently as she does, if her parents traveling.
6. If I hadn't travelled to Spain on my last vacations, I New Zealand.