A CITY TO VISIT AGAIN

Barcelona draws visitors to its famous sights, like the Sagrada Família, Parc Güell, Casa Batlló and La Pedrera. But they can also discover a city full of pleasant surprises on each trip.

A walk along the seafront, evenings on a rooftop terrace with views over the city skyline, spacious parks such as Parc de Montjüic or Ciutadella, the marina, Olympic village, and everything to do with FC Barcelona; a range of options for new experiences on each visit.

Culinary options are also varied, traditional Catalan dishes, food markets, and establishments that take you around the world with their flavours...

The city's cultural agenda also includes major art centres, like the Picasso Museum, the National Art Museum of Catalonia, and CaixaForum; a wide range of festivals and one of Spain's leading opera houses, Gran Teatre del Liceu.
