Subject: Rocky Mountains

Hi Marta,

I'm working on my vacation plans for next month, and I'd like to know a few more things about the place if that's OK. You're the expert since you've been there. Can you tell me the name of the guide at the hostel? You said he was very helpful. When we go, we want to ask for his advice. Also, did you make a reservation for the Rocky Hostel online, or did you call? I saw some terrific prices while I was browsing online yesterday. It isn't going to be too expensive, so I'm pretty happy about that.

As you know, I've never been to the Rocky Mountains. We're going to take some walking shoes, of course. What else do you think we'll need? I don't want to leave anything that I need behind! We're thinking about camping for a few days, too. I love fishing, so I'm going to pack my fishing things. I hope we can find a place to camp near a river. I was reading a guidebook last night, and I realized there were several campsites in the park. My wife is going to look into campsite prices sometime today. There's a free bus service in the park. Do you have any idea where I can get a schedule? We want to take a few buses on our trip because some of the hiking routes are difficult. Also, my wife gets nervous about tall mountains and bears!

I'm grateful for your help, Marta! You're a very reliable friend, so I'm sure you're going to have some great tips for me.

2. Nick is shocked by the expensive prices he saw on the internet. True / False
