Task 1: Read and write True / False

FAMILY

There are many people in an extended family (= a family unit which includes grandmothers, grandfathers, aunts and uncles, etc). We cannot forget about our cousins (= your aunts and uncles' children), nieces (= your sister or brother's daughters) and nephews (= your sister or brother's sons).

The basic family unit is called a nuclear family (= a family with two parents and their children, but not aunts, uncles, grandparents, etc.). Sometimes life is difficult and people live in single-parent families (= they have a child, but they don't have a husband or wife).

The moment you get married, your family gets bigger. I'm not talking only about your spouse (= your husband or your wife), but also about their father, mother, sister, brother etc. Together they are your in-laws and for example you suddenly have your mother-in-law and your father-in-law and so on.

More contexts for the new words:

- She is a single mother. (= she has a child, but no husband)
- I like my sister-in-law. (= I like my husband's or wife's sister)
