

Goodbye England's rose Elton John

Before listening

1. Look at the title of the song. Do you know who this song is a tribute to?
2. Discuss what you know about this person. What happened to her and why this song was written for her?
3. Think about other songs that were written as a tribute to someone. Exchange ideas with your friends.
4. What kinds of words would you expect to have in a song as a tribute to someone? Write down five words.

Listening

1. Listen to the song and complete the sentences:

The lives were _____

You belong to _____

The stars _____ your name

Like a candle _____

These empty days _____

Truth brings us _____

_____ you brought us through the _____

From a country lost _____

2. Read the stanzas. Match the following titles to each stanza according to the context. Justify your answer. Correct the previous activity using the stanzas below.

- a. You were a compassionate person.
- b. You will never be forgotten.
- c. You helped people and gave them hope.
- d. You made us happy with your smile.

()
 Goodbye England's rose
 May you ever grow in our hearts
 You were the grace that placed itself
 Where lives were torn apart
 You called out to our country
 And you whispered to those in pain
 Now you belong to heaven
 And the stars spell out your name

()
 And it seems to me you lived your life
 Like a candle in the wind
 Never fading with the sunset
 When the rain set in
 And your footsteps will always fall here
 Along England's greenest hills
 Your candle's burned out long before
 Your legend ever will

LISTENING FOCUS

()

Loveliness we've lost
These empty days without your smile
This torch we'll always carry
For our nation's golden child
And even though we try
The truth brings us to tears
All our words cannot express
The joy you brought us through the years

()

Goodbye England's rose
May you ever grow in our hearts
You were the grace that placed itself
Where lives were torn apart
Goodbye England's rose
From a country lost without your soul
Who'll miss the wings of your compassion
More than you'll ever know

After listening

1. What do you think the expression "candle in the wind" means in this stanza? Explain the stanza in your own words.

And it seems to me you lived your life
Like a candle in the wind
Never fading with the sunset
When the rain set in
And your footsteps will always fall here
Along England's greenest hills
Your candle's burned out long before
Your legend ever will

2. If you could write a song for someone, who would it be for? What would you write about?

Sing along

Goodbye England's rose
 May you ever grow in our hearts
 You were the grace that placed itself
 Where lives were torn apart
 You called out to our country
 And you whispered to those in pain
 Now you belong to heaven
 And the stars spell out your name

 And it seems to me you lived your life
 Like a candle in the wind
 Never fading with the sunset
 When the rain set in
 And your footsteps will always fall here
 Along England's greenest hills
 Your candle's burned out long before
 Your legend ever will

 Loveliness we've lost
 These empty days without your smile
 This torch we'll always carry
 For our nation's golden child
 And even though we try
 The truth brings us to tears
 All our words cannot express
 The joy you brought us through the years

 And it seems to me you lived your life
 Like a candle in the wind
 Never fading with the sunset
 When the rain set in
 And your footsteps will always fall here
 Along England's greenest hills

Your candle's burned out long before
 Your legend ever will

 Goodbye England's rose
 May you ever grow in our hearts
 You were the grace that placed itself
 Where lives were torn apart
 Goodbye England's rose
 From a country lost without your soul
 Who'll miss the wings of your compassion
 More than you'll ever know

 And it seems to me you lived your life
 Like a candle in the wind
 Never fading with the sunset
 When the rain set in
 And your footsteps will always fall here
 Along England's greenest hills
 Your candle's burned out long before
 Your legend ever will