

Chapter 48

The Library

A library is a building or a room that contains a large collection of books and other materials for people to read, borrow or refer. Beside books, the other materials may include films, recorded music, maps, books, e-books, audiobooks etc.

Given below are some of the greatest libraries of the world. Write the name of the city where each of them is located using the help card :

1

It is the largest library in Asia and the world's second largest library which contains over 26 million volumes.

_____

2

It is the largest library in India. It is situated at the Belvedere House, which was the former residence of the viceroy of India.

_____

3

It is the research library in the United Kingdom. Established in 1602, it is the oldest library in Europe.

_____

4

It is a research library in the USA. With more than 32 million volumes, It is the largest library in the world.

_____

5

It is the national library of the United Kingdom. It is the largest library in terms of item collection, which is over 150 million.

_____

6

It is a large library in Iran which holds over 1.1 million volumes. Established before 1457. It contains numerous works on Islamic history.

_____

BOOST UP

A catalogue is a systematic list of all the materials available in a library. The purpose of it is to enable a person to find a book easily.

Help Card

Kolkata, Beijing, Mashhad, Washington DC, Oxford, London

LIVEWORKSHEETS