

Questions & Answers : News Break

1. From the line ' your face is clean for once' , what can you say about 'you'

2. What do you think 'you' would normally do with his/her luncheon money?

3. Who is 'dear'?

4. What normally happens to the school books when the child comes home?

5. In your opinion, how would the child's clothes look like after a normal school day?

6. Who is the persona?

7. Why does the persona ask if the child is struck by lightning?

8. How do you think the persona feels when the child comes back home?

9. What might be the reason the child is acting nice that day?

10. Predict the child's result.

11. If you were the child, would you have done the same thing? Why?

12. Suggest two ways to make sure we do well in school.

- i. _____
ii. _____

13. Describe the relationships between the child and the parent.

Choose the right answer from here.

They are close to each other as they spend a lot of time together.	Pay attention in class.	Yes, because I do not want to get punished.	shocked/surprised	Not good.
The child does not want the parent to get mad at him/her because he has brought back the report card.	No, because my parents would not be mad as long as I try my best	The persona is surprised by how the child acts.	A parent.	Get good sleep at night.
dirty / creased/ stained.	he/she always has dirty face.	A child	spend it on food/snacks/ soft drinks	The child will drop the school books everywhere.