Error identification

From the marked areas A, B, C and D, identify the one that is wrong, correct it.

1. (A) Last year's mangosteens (B) were bad but (C) this year's are even (D) worst.
2. Ah Seng is (A) unusually (B) high for a Malaysian. He (C) is 1.9 meters (D) tall.
3. My mother is (A) rather disappointed (B) with my father. He prefers (C) sleeping than going (D) for walks.
4. If you (A) turn left (B) at Samuel Street, you (C) would (D) reach Joshi village.
5. (A) Some national hockey players (B) face problems (C) such as (D) do not have a job.
6. If Nancy (A) wants to get (B) married to Nick she (C) would have to learn to cook. He (D) likes to eat.
7. I (A) am disappointed. The computer course (B) is less (C) interesting (D) that I expected.
8. (A) In China, (B) have excellent methods (C) to train (D) their divers.
9. Mohan (A) tells me (B) that has serious problems (C) with his girlfriend. He wants (D) advice.
10. I (A) like Delia (B) rather than the other girls (C) in her class. She (D) is so polite
11. (A) Working life is not (B) that hard as school (C) life. I am glad (D) I have no more tests.
12. You (A) could take (B) whatever action you (C) want. I don't (D) care.
13. (A) The meeting (B) would begin promptly (C) at eight o'clock (D) so please be punctual.
14. They (A) will be (B) coming home, (C) isn't it ? We have to wait (D) then.
15. We (A) tried roller skating (B) for the first time (C) and (D) enjoyed very much.
16. The economy (A) of Indonesia (B) is not (C) so developed as that (D) of Singapore.
17. I (A) brought my roll (B) of film to (C) the shop for it to (D) be processed yesterday.
18. The offer (A) is attractive (B) but if you cannot (C) except it, I will (D) understand.
19. We (A) have been (B) thriving very (C) hard to achieve our ambition. We (D) hope to succeed in time.
20. (A) These fruit trees (B) only produce fruit (C) once every two years, (D) do they ?

LIVEWORKSHEETS