

Question 5

Your class recently attended a talk on how to save the environment. Your teacher has asked you to write a report on how students can reduce the use of plastics in your school. In your report, you must:

- tell how too much use of plastics has affected the school's surroundings
- suggest what students can do to reduce the use of plastics
- explain how you can involve the local community in your cause

Write your report.

To : Miss Anna binti Ahmad Yusoff

From : Ainur Farina binti Mohd Sopi

Subject : _____

Introduction

As requested, I am writing this report on how _____ . The event was a talk on how to save the environment where _____ . This report describes _____ , what students _____ and how I can _____ .

How too much use of plastics has affected the school's surroundings

First and foremost, the effect of too much use of plastics on the school's surroundings is _____ . This is because _____ . For example, _____ . Hence, we should work together to _____ .

What students can do to reduce the use of plastics

On the other hand, students can reduce the use of plastics by _____ . It is because students can _____ without having to use the plastic cup. For instance, the canteen can _____ as students bring their own water bottle. Therefore, the student will _____ .

How I can involve the local community in my cause

Last but not least, for example, I can involve the local community in my cause by _____ . It is because the local community will be _____ . For instance, organizers can explain _____ to _____ the local community _____ . Thus, they will be _____ .

Conclusion

To sum up, I believe that this program was a huge success and went smoothly. Indirectly _____ it _____ can _____ also _____ . It is _____ . It is hoped that _____ .

How students can reduce the use of plastics in school interested in a campaign
I learned about how to reduce the use of plastics in school
how too much use of plastics has affected the school's surroundings stay hydrated and save the environment at the same time involve the local community in my cause that the school will look dirty can do to reduce the use of plastics create a comfortable school's surroundings bringing their own water bottle this issue can be handled well in the future buy a drink and fill it in their own water bottle reduce the use of plastic cups about the effect of plastic use toward their surroundings holding a campaign regarding plastics use in school there will be too much plastic litter around the school candy wrappers, plastic cups and straws students can reduce the use of plastics in my school more alert about this plastic waste issue raise awareness among students, school's community and local community