

Date: Today is _____, _____.

Name: _____ Class: _____.

SEASONS – LESSON 2 GRAMMAR 2

4 Write will or won't.

- The blackbird is making a nest. There will be baby birds in the spring.
- I think it be very crowded downtown on Saturday. Let's go on Monday instead.
- It's raining, so Ben ride his bike to school today.
- It's the winter, so it be very hot tomorrow.
- Dad is shopping at the supermarket. We go to a restaurant for dinner tonight.
- My brother be a farmer when he gets older. He wants to move to the city.

5 Circle the correct verb.

- Look, Julia is getting into the tractor. She is going to will ride it through the field.
- My mom is working on the farm all day today. She is going to will be tired tonight.
- There is a lot of snow. The children are making a ball with it. They are going to will make a snowman.

- My grandpa has sowed some seeds. He is going to will grow vegetables.
- The sky is gray. It won't isn't going to be bright and sunny today.
- I have practiced my spelling and finished my homework. I think my teacher will is going to be happy.