

SPEAKING FOCUS

Fluency

1. They are going with us.
They were going with us.
I don't know why they were not going with us anymore.
2. She's going to buy a new king-size bed.
3. He's going to try to get a scholarship.
4. They are going to stay at a hostel.
5. She's going to book a bigger room.
6. They are going to travel this week.
7. He's going to talk to us.
8. They're going to buy a round-trip ticket.
9. He's going to buy a round-trip ticket.
10. The party is going to be here.

Questions

1. Is it part of our culture to tip waiter?
2. What games did you use to play when you were a child?
3. What sports did you use to play when you were a teenager?
4. What bands or singers did you listen to when you were a child?
5. Would you rather have Chinese, Japanese or Mexican food?
6. Is it hard to pass a driving test?
7. Have you ever lost your keys?
8. How many keys do you usually carry with you?
9. Can you tell me something interesting you've done recently?
10. Can you tell me something funny that happened to you recently?

Text and Discussion

Princess Diana

Diana, Princess of Wales, was one of the most adored member of the British royal family. She was well-known for her love of fashion and popular culture, and for her charity work and support of international peace-keeping organizations. Diana was born into an English family with royal ancestry, and later, in 1981, married Charles, Prince of Wales. Their marriage produced two heirs to the throne, William and Harry. She and Prince Charles separated and then officially divorced in 1996. Diana was always popular with the media. Unfortunately, she died in a car crash on August 31st, 1997, while attempting to run away from the paparazzi. People from all over the world still miss Diana.

1. Why is Diana still so well-known all over the world?
2. How much did Diana contribute to charity?
3. Do you think it's easy to belong to a royal family like she did?
4. What do you think about the paparazzi?
5. Why do they invade people's private lives?

