

New Moon – Predictions on the story

1. Warm-Up Exercise (10 minutes)

- Distribute worksheets with sentences to complete using the appropriate conjunction. Example sentences:

1. ____ Bella sees Edward again, she feels a rush of emotions.
2. Jacob will transform into a werewolf ____ he gets angry.
3. ____ you read the book, you will understand the characters better.
4. The Cullens won't return ____ Bella is in danger.

2. Scenario Cards (10 minutes)

- Present different scenarios from "New Moon" that involve key decision points. For example:
 1. Bella deciding to spend more time with Jacob.
 2. Edward leaving Bella for her safety.
 3. Bella rescuing Edward in Italy.
 4. The Cullens deciding to leave Forks.

Example:

Scenario: Bella deciding to spend more time with Jacob

"If Bella spends more time with Jacob, she will start to heal. As soon as she realizes Jacob's feelings, things become complicated. She won't be able to stay away from him unless she resolves her feelings for Edward. When Edward returns, Bella has to make a difficult choice."

- 3. Write a personal story or a fan fiction piece based on "New Moon," using "unless," "if," "when," and "as soon as" at least twice each.
