Title: Mariam's Big Move

Mariam was a young girl who lived in a small village in her country. One day, her family decided to move to Australia for a better life. Mariam felt both happy and a little scared because she didn't know what to expect.

Mariam and her family packed their bags and said bye to their friends and family. They got on a big plane and flew for a long time. When they got to Australia, everything looked different. The buildings were taller, the streets were bigger, and people spoke a language Mariam didn't understand well.

Mariam started going to a school called a Community College to learn English. It was tough at first, but she worked hard. With time, Mariam got better at English. She made new friends who helped her learn.

Even though it was hard, Mariam never gave up. Every day, she felt more and more at home in Australia. She was grateful for her new friends and her improved English skills.
